

Contributors

HUSSEIN ABAZA

Chief of UNEP's Economics and Trade Branch in Geneva. He developed various programmes on Environment and Economics, and has various publications on environmental and integrated assessment, the interface between trade and environment, valuation of environmental and natural resources, and the use of economic instruments for environmental management.

DR. IBRAHIM ABDEL GELIL

Academic Chair of Sheikh Zayed Bin Sultan AI Nahayan, and Director of the Environmental Management Programme at the Arabian Gulf University in Bahrain. He was the CEO of the Egyptian Environmental Affairs Agency (EEAA), and the chairman of the Egyptian Organization for Energy Planning (OEP).

DR. NEFISA ABOU-ELSEOUD

Professor at the Institute of National Planning in Egypt, and former Director of the Center of Environmental Studies and Management of Natural Resources. Consultant to the Egyptian Environmental Affairs Agency (EEAA) and expert on Hazardous Waste at the Egyptian Ministry of Justice.

DR. ISAM BASHOUR

Professor of soil science and plant nutrition at the Faculty of Agricultural and Food Sciences at the American University of Beirut. He has many publications on the subject of fertilization of arid and semi-arid regions. His current research is mainly related to conservation agriculture and improvement of production quality.

DR. MANAL EL-BATRAN

Professor at the Housing and Building National Research Centre (HBRC), Egypt, specialized in environmentally sound urban planning, green architecture, community development, urbanization, urban land policy, and mechanisms of housing financing.

DR. FARID CHAABAN

Professor of Electrical Engineering at the American University of Beirut and Dean of the College of Engineering at Dhofar University, Oman. His research interests include electric machines and drives, and the environmental impacts of energy sectors, including air pollution.

DR. AHMAD GABER

President of Chemonics Egypt, one of Egypt's premier environmental engineering and management consulting firms. Professor of Chemical Engineering at Cairo University. A specialist on water, sanitation and environmental management, he is author or co-author of various publications and conference papers.

MOHAMED ABDULAZIZ EL-GUNDY

Former Attorney General in Egypt. He occupied several judicial posts since 1950 until appointed Attorney General in 1985-1988. He contributed to many pieces of legislation, including environmental laws, the Children's Code and the Law of Associations and Private Organizations, and developed the Arab Legislative Guide on the Environment.

DR. RIYAD HAMZAH

Professor of environmental biotechnology at the Arabian Gulf University and a member of the Council of Higher Education in the Kingdom of Bahrain. He was involved in the establishment of the Arabian Gulf University, Bahrain, since its inception in 1984 and established and directed numerous new programs in various scientific and educational fields. He served as its vice president between 1994 to 2005.

DR. MOHAMED KASSAS

Professor Emeritus of Planticology at Cairo University. Pioneer in the field of drylands and combating desertification, and lead author of major global reports on sustainable development. Former President of the International Union for the Conservation of Nature (IUCN). Honorary Founding Member of AFED.

DR. MAHMOUD MEDANY

Deputy Director, Central Laboratory for Agricultural Climate (CLAC) at the Agricultural Research Center, Cairo, Egypt. One of the Lead Authors of the IPCC Fourth Assessment Report (WGII, AR4, 2007) and expert reviewer of greenhouse gases inventory, 2006.

DR. MUSA NIMAH

Professor of Irrigation at the Faculty of Agriculture and Food Sciences at the American University of Beirut. His research focuses on water resources management and water saving and conservation, especially in the agricultural water use domain. A major goal of these studies is to develop methods for water conservation and sustainable irrigation.

HASSAN PARTOW

Environmental Affairs Officer at UNEP's Post-Conflict and Disaster Management Branch in Geneva. He has wide experience conducting post-conflict environmental assessments and undertaking capacity building activities in Africa and the Middle East. He is of Iraqi origin.

NAJIB SAAB (EDITOR)

Publisher and Editor-in-Chief of Al-Bia Wal-Tanmia (Environment & Development), the leading Arabic magazine on sustainable development, and Founding Secretary General of the Arab Forum for Environment & Development (AFED). Architect, university lecturer and writer, he is a 2003 laureate of the United Nations Environment Programme's Global 500 Award for environmental achievements.

DR. MAHMOUD KHAMIS EL SAYYED

Professor of Marine Geology, Faculty of Science, Alexandria University, Egypt. He co-founded various academic institutions and held various managerial positions, and served as Technical Advisor to various agencies, including UNEP, IOC, UNIDO, PERSGA, CEDARE and the League of Arab States.

DR. OSAMA EL-TAYEB

Professor Emeritus of Microbiology and Immunology and Director of the Microbial Biotechnology Center at the Faculty of Pharmacy, Cairo University. He is the author of several monographs and articles on science policy and socio-economic dimensions of science and technology. He established the Microbial Biotechnology Center at Cairo University as an R&D center.

DR. MOSTAFA KAMAL TOLBA (EDITOR)

President of the Executive Committee of the Arab Forum for Environment and Development (AFED). In 1972, he led Egypt's delegation to the Stockholm Conference on the Human Environment, thus starting a long-life commitment to environmental issues. He was nominated, immediately after Stockholm, as the Deputy Executive Director of the newly-established United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP). Within two years, he became the Executive Director - a post he held until retiring at the end of 1992.

SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

(Members of AFED Board of Trustees)

Dr. Mostafa Kamal Tolba, former Executive Director of UNEP (Chairman)

Dr. Mohamed Kassas, Professor emeritus at Cairo University and former President of IUCN (Chief Advisor)

Najib Saab, Secretary General of AFED and Editor-in-Chief of Environment & Development (Coordinator)

Dr. Adnan Badran, former Prime Minister of Jordan and President of Petra University

Dr. Abdulrahman Al-Awadi, Executive Secretary of the Regional Organization for the Protection of Marine Environment (ROPME) and former Minister of Health in Kuwait

WILLIAM SAAB, COPY EDITOR

A graduate in Social and Political Sciences from Cambridge University, UK, he is currently pursuing postgraduate studies in international relations at Johns Hopkins University, USA, focusing on environment policy, energy and international finance.